

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C., May 2, 1894.

Superintendent Mint U.S.,

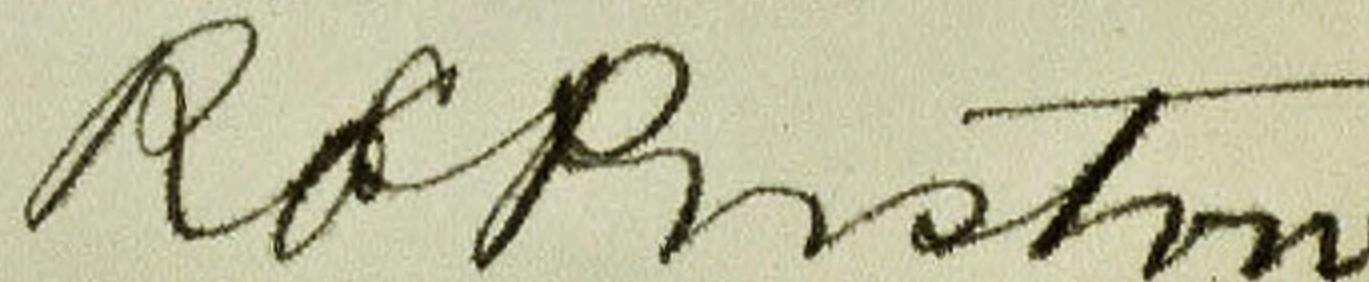

Philadelphia, Penna.

Sir:

The attention of the Department has been called to the fact that you are requiring bonds to be executed to you personally by all workmen, laborers, helpers, and adjusters, employed in the Mint. I beg leave to call your attention to Section 3501 of the Revised Statutes, which limits the bonds of officers other than Presidential appointments to assistants and clerks.

I have submitted this question to the Solicitor of the Treasury, and he decides that you have no authority of law for exacting bonds other than those provided for by Section 3501 above cited.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.
